

Mission Statement:

The mission of Communication Studies and Theatre Arts is to prepare students (I) ethically, (II) personally, (III) socially, and (IV) academically for the ever-changing world of digital media, theatre and rhetorical arts.

Program Goals:

Students who complete the Bachelor of Arts in Speech will be able to:

- Design appropriate speech communication skills across various settings, purposes, and audiences.
- Build and maintain healthy and effective relationships with peers.
- Use technology to communicate effectively in various settings and contexts.
- Demonstrate professional and ethical behavior.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the conceptual, historical, and theoretical perspectives that inform the Speech communication field.