2014 Annual Security Report
Kansas Wesleyan University

The Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics
The Annual Security Report is a guide to the policies and procedures that Kansas Wesleyan University implemented for the safety and security of the campus community.

The Student Development Office prepares this report to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. This report is prepared in cooperation with the local law enforcement agencies. It is policy that by October 1 of every year, each member of the campus community is sent a copy of this annual report by electronic mail. This report provides statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus and/or in certain off-campus buildings or property owned, leased, or controlled by Kansas Wesleyan University. This report also includes institutional policies concerning campus security, such as policies regarding sexual assault, alcohol, and other drugs.

Kansas Wesleyan University Background
Kansas Wesleyan University (KWU) is a community of more than 175 faculty and staff and approximately 710 students. The 28-acre KWU campus is located in the center of the country – Salina, Kansas. It's a city with a population of 48,000 that has a hometown atmosphere, with big city amenities. It's a city of movies, malls, restaurants, arts, concerts, sports and smiles all around. The college has not experienced a significant number of major crimes in the past, but it must be noted that crime is a national concern that affects us all.

KWU has been an influential part of higher education in North Central Kansas for more than a century. Founded in 1886 by the United Methodist church, KWU welcomes students of all faiths. KWU’s primary goal is providing students with an excellent education in a caring Christian campus community. The university is uncompromising in its dedication to providing an atmosphere where students can mature and learn while taking responsibility for their own actions and lives. The campus environment helps students prepare for the challenges in their personal and professional lives by living and studying with people from many backgrounds, by learning to relate responsibly to God and to others by achieving goals in a timely manner.

Developing a safe and secure environment at an academic institution is the responsibility of the entire community. The Office of Student Development and the Office of Facilities and Plant Operations, in conjunction with the Salina Police Department, Salina Fire Department, and Salina Police K-9 Unit have the responsibility to identify programs, methods, and approaches to help the campus maintain a reasonably safe and secure environment.

Campus Security & Procedures
The Office of Student Development maintains a close working relationship with local law enforcement agencies in an effort to maximize the services provided to the University community. Campus Security monitors campus buildings and grounds; Sunday/Monday/Tuesday/Wednesday 9pm-1am, Thursday 9pm-4am, and Friday/Saturday 9pm-5am. The Salina Police Department runs periodic checks around the campus perimeter, as well as, conducting building checks upon request from the Executive Director of Student Development.

Incident Response
Campus Security officers carry cellular telephones and can be reached in case of emergency at 785-452-2517. Emergency calls received by security officers are promptly referred to the Executive Director of Student Development, Director of Campus Safety, Residence Hall Director and Resident Assistant on duty, who then notify the appropriate city emergency departments (Police, Ambulance, or Fire Departments). All individuals in this line of notification are encouraged to call 911 at any point if situations appear to warrant immediate action. All emergency calls are followed up by security agencies/individuals by providing a written incident report on all emergency situations. Criminal investigations, vehicle accidents, and/or moving violations are referred to the Salina Police Department.

Crime Prevention
The safety and security of all members and guests of the campus community are of primary concern at KWU. For that reason, security officers provide service to the campus community. Foot patrols are made at regular intervals each evening as well as vehicle patrol. University policies and regulations, as well as local, state, and federal laws are enforced. A close working relationship is maintained with the Salina Police Department.

Students, faculty, staff and guests of KWU are encouraged to report criminal activity to Office of Student Development, which then contacts the appropriate agency to conduct criminal activity checks. A report will be taken and follow-up made on the complaint. The cooperation, involvement and personal support of students is crucial to the success of the campus safety program. Students are encouraged to use common sense and to observe proper safety precautions.

Students living in residential areas are issued a key to their room and to the outside door of the building. Each residence hall is staffed with a Resident Director and Resident Assistants. A Resident Assistant is on duty each night in each building. During the evening, rounds of the facilities are conducted to monitor the activities of the building as well as to ensure the exterior doors are secured properly. Safety and security issues are included as part of the staff’s thorough training each April and August and to all new RA’s who may be hired during the school year. Ongoing training is conducted throughout the school year, as well.

Crime prevention demands constant interaction and outreach to the community. The KWU Student Development Office distributes materials familiarizing all students, faculty, and staff with their responsibility in reducing criminal opportunity. Crime prevention brochures, posters, and handouts are used to help make all members of the campus community aware of the potential for crime. Kansas Wesleyan University relies on the media to present information to the community about situations that may pose a potential threat to its members, as well as, a voluntary emergency notification system students may sign up for to receive text messages alerting them of potential emergency situations on campus with instructions issued on what students should do during any given emergency to remain safe.

How to Report Crimes and Other Emergencies Occurring On-Campus
Preventing campus crime is a shared responsibility between Kansas Wesleyan University and its campus community members. Public apathy is a criminal’s greatest ally. Campus community members should not assume that someone else has reported suspicious or criminal activity. Suspicion is the only reason anyone needs for calling the police. Crimes, suspicious activity, or other emergencies on campus should be reported immediately. If a campus community member suspects a crime has been or is being committed, s/he should call Monday-Friday 8am-5pm the Student Development Office at 785-833-4329, Saturday-Sunday daytime call RA on duty or Executive Director of Student Development at 785-833-4325 or Director of Campus Safety at 785-833-4360. Evenings/Nights Sunday-Saturday call campus security at 785-452-2517, or call the Salina Police Department immediately at 911 or 9-911.

Crimes Involving Students at Off-Campus Locations
KWU relies on a close working relationship with local law enforcement agencies to receive information about incidents involving Kansas Wesleyan University students, on and off campus. KWU may pursue disciplinary action for off-campus violations of University rules, whether or not the activity was criminal in nature.
Daily Crime and Fire Logs
Daily crime and fire logs are available for review during business hours, (Monday through Friday, except holidays and emergency closures) in the Student Development office, located in Pioneer Hall, Room 185. The information in the crime and fire log typically includes the incident classification, date reported, date occurred, general location, and disposition of each reported crime. The information in the crime and fire log relative to fires typically includes information about fires that occur in residential facilities, including the nature, date, time, and general location. Unless the disclosure is prohibited by law or would jeopardize the confidentiality of the victim, newly reported crimes and updated information regarding previously reported crimes are entered into the daily crime and fire log within two business days of when it is reported to Student Development or Campus Security.

Maintenance of Campus Facilities
Kansas Wesleyan University is committed to campus safety and security. Facilities and landscaping are maintained in a manner designed to minimize the risk for hazardous conditions. Sidewalks are designed to provide well-traveled, lighted routes from parking areas to buildings and from building to building. Groundskeeping personnel trim shrubs from sidewalks, walkways, and building entrances to provide a well-lighted route to buildings. Campus security regularly patrol the campus and report malfunctioning lights and other unsafe physical conditions to Student Development and the Physical Plant for correction. Once a semester campus security, student development staff, physical plant staff and student government do a campus safety walk through at night and note any areas that could be a security concern. An action plan is set to remedy the items noted on the walk through.

Missing Persons Policy
Kansas Wesleyan University takes student safety very seriously. To this end, and in compliance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act (Public Law 110-315, August 14, 2008), the following policy and procedure has been established to assist in locating Kansas Wesleyan University (KWU) students living in on-campus housing who, based on the facts and circumstances known to the University, have been determined to be “missing” (missing student). If a member of the KWU community has reason to believe that a student is missing, every effort will immediately be made to locate the student to determine his/her state of health and well-being. For purposes of this policy, a student is defined as missing once KWU administration is notified and initiates a formal missing person(s) investigation.

Missing Student Procedural Guidelines:
- All students will register an emergency contact at registration
- Persons who are aware a student is missing should immediately notify the Student Development Office or the Office of the Provost.
- KWU will immediately check the student’s room, and then make every reasonable effort to determine the whereabouts and well-being of the student.
- If a student is under 18 years of age, and not an emancipated individual, KWU will notify the custodial parent or guardian within twenty-four (24) hours of the determination that the student is missing, in addition to any other confidential contact person designated by the student.
- KWU will notify the appropriate law enforcement agency within twenty-four (24) hours after the time that the student is determined missing.
- If the Student Development Office (and/or Salina Police Department), after investigating the report, determines that a student has been missing for twenty-four (24) hours, KWU will notify the emergency contact person.

Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Assault Policy & Procedures
Sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, and sexual assault are unacceptable and will not be tolerated at Kansas Wesleyan University. Accordingly, KWU urges an individual to make a formal report if that individual is the victim of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment; has knowledge of another person’s being the victim of sexual misconduct, or believes in good faith that he/she has witnessed a possible warning sign of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment. A report of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment will be dealt with promptly. Confidentiality will be maintained to the greatest extent possible, but without violating the need to ensure due process of law/procedure to anyone accused of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment.
All members of the KWU community, including but not limited to students, faculty, (including adjunct faculty), administrators, staff, volunteers and independent contractors are subject to this policy.

Policy

Sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, and sexual assault are unacceptable and will not be tolerated at KANSAS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY. Accordingly, KWU urges an individual to make a formal report if that individual is the victim of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment; has knowledge of another person’s being the victim of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment, or believes in good faith that he/she has witnessed a possible warning sign of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment. A report of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment will be dealt with promptly. Confidentiality will be maintained to the greatest extent possible, but without violating the need to insure due process and procedure to anyone accused of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, or sexual harassment.

ALL MEMBERS OF THE KWU COMMUNITY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO STUDENTS, FACULTY (INCLUDING ADJUNCT FACULTY), ADMINISTRATORS, STAFF, VOLUNTEERS AND INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS (COLLECTIVELY “MEMBERS” OR “members”) ARE SUBJECT TO THIS POLICY.

Violators will be subject to disciplinary action that may include job termination, expulsion, suspension, removal from campus, contract cancellation, other appropriate institutional sanctions or any other action reasonably necessary to address the inappropriate behavior. Prosecution by civil authorities may also occur.

Definitions

Sexual Misconduct

This policy defines sexual misconduct as any threat, act or omission used to obtain sexual gratification against another’s will or at the expense of another, including without limitation, behavior inducing fear, shame, or mental suffering. Sexual misconduct includes unwanted sexual acts or actions, whether by a domestic partner, an acquaintance, a person in the position of authority, or a stranger that occurs without indication of consent of both individuals or under threat or coercion. Sexual misconduct can occur either forcibly and/or against a person’s will, or when a person is incapable of giving consent. Silence does not, in and of itself, constitute consent. The victim of sexual misconduct may be anyone, including but not limited to, adults, adolescents, minors, the developmentally disabled, and vulnerable individuals regardless of age.

Sexual misconduct may include, but is not limited to, rape, forcible sodomy, forcible oral copulation, sexual assault with an object, sexual battery, forcible fondling, and threat of sexual assault.

Sexual Harassment

This policy defines sexual harassment as unwelcomed sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or other unwelcome verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when submission to or rejection of such advances, requests, or conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly.

Sexual harassment is also defined as unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or other unwelcome verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature that is so severe or pervasive that it has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a student’s education or an employee’s work performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating, or sexually offensive educational, living, or working environment, when judged by the standards of a reasonable person.

Sexual harassment also includes stalking, as defined by the Violence Against Women Act.

Sexual harassment does not refer to compliments or other behavior of a socially acceptable nature. It does not refer to discussions of material with a sexual component, which might offend some but was introduced in a class or conference for intellectual purposes.

Sexual harassment may be female to male, female to female, male to female or male to male.

Behavior may constitute sexual harassment no matter how delivered- in person, electronically, or otherwise. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to the following:

(a) Unwelcome physical contact, including touching on any part of the body, kissing, hugging, or standing so close as to brush up against another person;
(b) Requests for sexual favors either directly or indirectly;
(c) Attempting in any way, explicitly or implicitly, to require sexual conduct as a condition of matriculation, continued student or employee status, employment, obtaining a raise, obtaining new duties or any type of advancement, as well as implying or threatening expulsion or termination or unfairly evaluating performance;
(d) Attempting in any way, explicitly or implicitly, to require a student or employee to perform certain duties or responsibilities simply because of his/her gender or other protected characteristics; or
(e) Attempting in any way, explicitly or implicitly, to require a student or employee to submit to sexual conduct by a vendor, customer or other third party.

Other behavior that may seem innocent or acceptable to some people may constitute sexual harassment to others. Such behavior may include, but is not limited to:

(a) Unwelcome sexual flirtations, advances, jokes, or propositions;
(b) Unwelcome comments about an individual’s body or personal life;
(c) Open discussion of intimate details of one’s own personal life;
(d) The use of sexually degrading words to describe an individual; or
(e) The display in the workplace of objects, pictures, cartoons or writings that might be perceived as offensively, sexually suggestive.

KWU requires that professors who teach courses in which sexually explicit materials are a part of the curriculum because of the nature of such courses, e.g. human biology, publicize course content in advance and conduct such classes with appropriate decorum and sensitivity.

Sexual harassment may also include, but is not limited to:

- Gender Harassment: Generalized sexist statements and behavior that convey insulting or degrading attitudes including acts of verbal, nonverbal, or physical aggression, intimidation, or hostility based on sex or sex-stereotyping or a person’s failure to conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity even if those acts do not involve conduct of a sexual nature. Examples include suggestive or sexually explicit posters, calendars, photographs, graffiti, cartoons; email, voicemail, and social media including but not limited to Facebook and Twitter; and sexually explicit jokes or humor focused toward a particular gender.
- Seductive Behavior: Unwanted, inappropriate and offensive sexual advances. Examples include repeated unwanted sexual invitations, insistent requests for dinner, drinks or dates, persistent letters, phone calls and other invitations.
- Sexual Bribery: Solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-linked behavior by promising a reward (a better grade, promotion, etc.) for performing the activity or behavior. The proposition may be either overt or subtle.
- Sexual Coercion: Coercion of sexual activity or other sex-linked behavior by threat of punishment. Examples include negative performance evaluations, withholding promotions, threats of termination, or threats of a failing or lower grade.
- Sexual Exploitation: Non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual harassment offenses. Examples include, but are not limited to, invasion of sexual privacy, prostituting another student, non-consensual video or audio-taping of sexual activity, going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting your friends hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex), engaging in voyeurism, knowingly transmitting an STI or HIV to another individual, exposing one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances, inducing another to expose their genitals. Sexually-based stalking and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation.
- Sexual Imposition: Deliberate assaults or molestation, or unwanted physical contact such as patting, pinching, “friendly” arms around the shoulder or intentionally brushing against another person’s body.
- Other conduct or behavior of a sexual nature deemed inappropriate by a KWU employee and/or student.

Sexual Assault

Sexual assault is defined as the penetration, however slight, of another person’s vagina or anus with any object or body part, or of the mouth with a penis or sexual object, without that person’s consent.

Sexual assault also includes dating violence and domestic violence, as defined by the Violence Against Women Act, if the involved fits the definition above.

Violence Against Women Act Section 304

Sexual Violence is prohibited and as specifically addressed in the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013, Section 304, Campus Sexual Violence Act provisions amending Section 485 (f) of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act). Sexual violence refers to physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s consent or where a person is incapable of giving consent due to the victim’s use of drugs or alcohol or due to an intellectual or other disability. A number of different acts fall into the category of sexual violence, including rape, acquaintance rape, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, as well as aiding acts of sexual violence.

Dating Violence: The term “dating violence” means violence committed by a person (A) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and (B) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: (i) length of the relationship, (ii) the type of relationship, (iii) the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Domestic Violence: The term “domestic violence” includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Stalking: The term “stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (A) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others, or (B) suffer substantial emotional distress.

Criminal offenses and statutory references include, but are not limited to:

- Rape – K.S.A. 21-5503
- Sexual Battery – K.S.A. 21-5505
- Domestic Battery – K.S.A. 21-5414
- Sexual Exploitation of a Child – K.S.A. 21-5510
- Unlawful Voluntary Sexual Relations – K.S.A. 21-5507
- Indecent Liberties with a Child – K.S.A. 21-5506
- Lewd and Lascivious Behavior – K.S.A. 21-5513
- Criminal Sodomy – K.S.A. 21-5504
- Incest – K.S.A. 21-5604

Other definitions include:

- Domestic Violence – K.S.A. 21-5111(i)
- Dating Violence – A type of domestic violence where the perpetrator is or has been involved in a social relationship of a romantic nature with the victim. K.S.A. 21-5111(i)(1)
- Sexual Intercourse – K.S.A. 21-5501(a)

Consent

A critical factor that distinguishes acceptable sexual behavior from unacceptable sexual behavior is the consent of the parties involved. Consent is informed and freely and actively given. Consent is communicated through mutually understandable words or actions that indicate willingness by all of the involved parties to engage in the same sexual activity, at the same time, and in the same way.
Clear and open communication is an essential element to conveying and understanding consent. Any person who contemplates initiating any form of sexual activity is strongly encouraged to talk with all involved parties before engaging in such activity. While it is the responsibility of the initiator of a specific sexual activity to obtain consent, individuals should communicate as clearly and verbally as possible with all parties about what they do and do not want.

Elements of Consent:

1. Consent cannot be freely given if the person’s ability to understand and give consent is impaired. Examples of those who are impaired and therefore cannot give consent include:
   - any person who is incapacitated due to the use of alcohol and/or other drugs;
   - any person who is unconscious or for any reason is physically incapacitated;
   - any person who is mentally impaired;
   - any person less than 17 years old;
   - any person who has experienced the explicit or implicit use of force, coercion, threats, and/or intimidation.

2. Ideally, consent is given verbally. However, consent (or lack of consent) may also be expressed through gestures, body language, and/or attitude. For example, active reciprocation could express consent, and pushing someone away, or simply moving away, could express lack of consent.

3. Silence does not equal consent.

4. Consent to one form of sexual activity does not necessarily imply consent to other forms of sexual activity. Consent may be given for specific activities and not for others.

5. Any party has the right to change their mind and withdraw consent at any time.

6. A prior sexual history between the participants does not constitute consent.

7. A person’s ability to freely give consent may be jeopardized if the initiator is in a position of power over the person. Examples might include if the initiator is a supervisor of the person.

Background Checks
This policy defines background checks as, but not limited to, the following:

- A search for sex-related offenses in an individual’s counties of residence for the past seven years;
- A search of the state registry of sex offenders; and
- A database search for criminal activity in the individual’s states of residence for the past seven years.

Key Students
This policy defines “key students” as those students who are in practicum involving protected persons or the medical field, student teachers, students working with protected persons and resident assistants.

Camp Counselors and Program Leaders
This policy defines “camp counselors” and “program leaders” as those members who in the course and scope of their employment or service conduct activities at or on behalf of KWU and come in contact with protected persons.

Protected Persons
This policy defines “protected persons” to include minors, developmentally disabled individuals regardless of age and vulnerable individuals regardless of age. Vulnerable individuals include those who are mentally incapacitated, whether temporarily or permanently, for any reason including but not limited to intoxication, drugs, or mental incompetence. Sexual misconduct with respect to a protected person includes the intent to arouse or satisfy the sexual desires of either the protected person or the perpetrator.

Minors
This policy defines minors as those individuals who have not yet reached the age of majority and are not enrolled as students at KWU.

Respondent
For the purpose of this Policy, respondent is the person accused of violating the KWU’s Policy on Sexual Assault, Harassment, & Other Forms of Sexual Misconduct (hereinafter referred to as “this Policy”).
Burden of Proof

In investigating and adjudicating violations of this Policy the preponderance of the evidence standard is used. The preponderance of the evidence means the fact in dispute is more likely than not to be true based on the weight of the totality of the evidence provided to KWU.

Title IX Coordinator

The Title IX Coordinator oversees KWU’s response to reports and complaints that involve possible sex discrimination and violations of this Policy, to monitor outcomes, identify and address any matters, and assess effects on the campus climate, so KWU can address issues that affect the wider campus community.

Title IX Investigator

The Title IX investigator assists in resolving complaints of violations of this Policy at KWU. The Title IX investigator will conduct investigations of complaints filed asserting violation of this Policy with prompt and thorough investigation plans while acting as a neutral party.

Complainant

The complainant is the person who makes either a formal or informal complaint asserting a violation of this Policy.

Hostile Work Environment

“Hostile work environment” sexual harassment occurs when an employee is subject to unwelcome advances, sexual innuendos, or offensive gender-related language that is sufficiently severe or pervasive from the perspective of a reasonable person of the same gender as the offended employee.

Non-Consensual Sexual Contact

Non-consensual sexual contact, which is any intentional sexual touching with any object, by any person upon another without consent and/or by force.

Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse

Non-consensual sexual intercourse, however slight, by any person upon another without consent and/or by force. It includes oral, anal and vaginal penetration, to any degree, with any object.

Retaliation

For the purpose of this Policy, retaliation means adverse action by KWU against a person because the person brought a formal or informal complaint to KWU asserting a violation of this Policy and/or because the person provided evidence to KWU during an investigation described in this Policy.

Sexual Intimidation

Sexual intimidation involves one person threatening another person that the first person will commit a sex act against the other person; engage in indecent exposure; or stalk the other person who reasonably perceives the stalker is pursuing a romantic and/or sexual relationship.

Incapacitation

Incapacitation means a person who is temporarily incapable of appraising or controlling his/her conduct due to the influence of a narcotic, anesthetic, or other substance administered without consent or due to any other act prohibited by this Policy committed upon the victim without consent.

Confidentiality of Information

KWU will make every effort reasonably possible to preserve the privacy of an individual who makes a complaint under this policy. As KWU’s procedure for handling complaints is initiated and completed, all involved parties will be expected to respect the sensitive nature of the matter and to protect, to the extent possible consistent with KWU’s legal obligations, the confidentiality of the complainant, the person accused (the respondent), and all those involved in the investigation. KWU will respect the privacy of the complainant, the individual(s) against whom the complaint is filed (respondents), and the witnesses as much as possible, consistent with KWU’s legal obligations to investigate and to take appropriate action. Only people who need to know will be told and information will be shared only as necessary with investigators, witnesses, and the accused individual.
The degree to which confidentiality can be protected, however, depends upon KWU's legal duty to respond to the information reported and the professional and or civil office role of the person being consulted. The professional and/or civil office and/or civil officer being consulted should make these limits clear before the disclosure of any facts.

To Report Confidentially: If one desires that details of an incident of sexual assault, harassment, or other sexual misconduct be kept confidential, he or she should speak with a counselor, available at local agencies, on or off-campus, who can maintain confidentiality. In addition, the person may speak off-campus with members of the clergy, who will also keep reports made to them confidential.

Non-confidential reporting options: Individuals are encouraged to speak to officials of KWU to make formal reports of sexual assault, harassment, or forms of sexual misconduct. Individuals who make formal reports have the right and can expect to have incidents of sexual assault, harassment, or other sexual misconduct taken seriously by KWU when formally reported, and to have those incidents investigated and properly resolved through administrative procedures.

KWU will act to investigate all complaints, either formal or informal, to take appropriate actions based on the weight of the totality of the evidence, against any student, faculty member, staff member, administrator, or other KWU employee when it is determined that it is more probably true than not that a violation of this Policy has occurred.

Certain KWU officials have a duty to report sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking for federal statistical reporting purposes (such as pursuant to the Clery Act). All personally identifiable information is kept confidential, but statistical information must be reported to KWU campus security regarding the type of incident, date, and the location of the incident (using Clery location categories) and the Clery crime category. Further information regarding disclosure may be found in Section VII.

Options Following an Act of Sexual Assault, Harassment, or Other Forms of Sexual Misconduct

A member of KWU's community who is the victim of sexual assault, or other forms of sexual misconduct, has knowledge of a third party victim of sexual assault, or other forms of sexual misconduct, or believes in good faith that he/she has witnessed a possible warning sign of sexual assault, or other forms of sexual misconduct as defined in this Policy is urged to make a formal report to the police, Student Development Office, Title IX Coordinator, and/or KWU Provost, as appropriate.

Whether or not the individual makes a formal report, all victims of sexual misconduct are urged to seek appropriate help, which may include a medical evaluation and obtaining information, support, and counseling, either on or off campus. Victims should use the resources listed in this policy to assist them in accessing the full range of services available.

Medical Treatment

A person who is the victim of sexual misconduct is urged to seek appropriate medical evaluation as promptly as possible.

- For life-threatening conditions, call 911 or 9-911.
- For all other situations, see Procedures for Sexual Assault in the Student Handbook.

Medical Legal Evidence Preservation

A person who is the victim of sexual misconduct (particularly rape, forcible oral copulation, or sodomy) is encouraged to request collection of medical-legal evidence. Collection of evidence entails interaction with police and a police report. Prompt collection of physical evidence is essential should a person later decide to pursue criminal prosecution and/or a civil action.

Obtaining Support, Information, or Counseling

Whether or not one makes a formal report, a person who is the victim of sexual misconduct is encouraged to obtain information, counseling, and support. Counselors at a variety of agencies, both on and off campus, can help a person decide what steps to take, such as seeking medical attention, preserving evidence, obtaining counseling, or filing a report with authorities.
Information, support and advice are available for anyone who wishes to discuss issues related to sexual assault, harassment or other forms of sexual misconduct, whether or not an act constituting either has actually occurred, and whether or not the person seeking information has been harassed, assaulted, accused of an act of sexual assault, harassment or other forms of sexual misconduct, or is a third-party.

The degree to which confidentiality can be protected depends upon whether KWU has a legal duty to respond to the allegations and the professional role of the person consulted, as well as the “due process” rights of any accused. The scope of confidentiality should be addressed by that professional person before specific facts are disclosed.

Students should use the Office of Student Development as a prime source of support and information, and employees and all other members, the KWU Provost’s Office and/or the Title IX Coordinator.

Formal Reporting

A person who is the victim of sexual assault, harassment or other forms of sexual misconduct, has knowledge of a third party victim, or believes in good faith that he/she has witnessed a possible warning sign of such behavior is encouraged to make a formal report to:

- The designated campus administrator; and/or Title IX Coordinator

Whether or not a witness or victim elects to report an act of sexual assault, harassment, or other forms of sexual misconduct or the warning signs of to the police, he or she is urged to make a formal report directly to the parties identified.

KWU has a board-approved policy and procedures in place for the confidential reporting by members of issues concerning sexual assault, harassment, or other forms of sexual misconduct.

Reporting of incidents should be accomplished pursuant to the specific recommendations in the Handbooks and on the KWU website.

Title IX Coordinator as a Resource

KWU’s Title IX Coordinator can be used by any KWU member as a resource for understanding and navigating the reporting/investigative and appeal process. Faculty or staff supporters should consult the Coordinator with questions about how to best support students going through the reporting/investigation and appeal process. The Title IX Coordinator is not a confidential resource.

A. Procedure for Handling Complaints

Step 1 - The initial report:

Any person covered by the policy may either (a) report the complaint to the head of the department or unit in which the conduct occurred, but if that person’s conduct is the reason for the complaint, then report the conduct to the next higher level of supervision: or (b) report the complaint to the Title IX Coordinator. Students or graduates students respectively may also report their complaint to the Office of Executive Director for Student Development.

It is important for all persons to preserve any relevant evidence related to the complaint.

Anonymous complaints cannot be ignored. While KWU endeavors to investigate all complaints, including anonymous complaints, the nature of anonymous complaints makes investigation, determination, and remediation more difficult and, at times, impossible. Further, while KWU attempts to protect the identity of complainants who do not wish to be identified, this may not always be possible.

The initial report may be oral or written. However, if reported orally, notes will be taken by the Coordinator and/or investigator, and then will be required to be signed as being correct and complete by the complainant. The initial report should include as much information as possible regarding the alleged conduct or the incidents, including but not limited to: the dates and locations of the conduct; the effect the conduct has had on the employment, learning or living environment or the complainant’s ability to participate in KWU programs or activities; and the name and title of the person alleged to have engaged in the conduct.

A. In the event of a sexual violence or stalking complaint, during the interview of complainant a representative from DVACK or advocate can be present.

B. If a complainant believes that a criminal act has occurred, then the complainant should make a criminal complaint to the police. The Title IX Coordinator, investigator should assist the complainant to facilitate the report to police. The Title IX Coordinator and or investigator shall also advise the complainant that he/she may decline to notify the police. However, the criminal justice system and this policy are separate procedures, but the report must be made under both procedures if a complainant wishes that both processes go forward. Complainants may also request a protection from abuse order under the Protection from Stalking Act, K.S.A. 60-31a01. If such an Order is issued, KWU will assist to enforce this order on campus.

C. If the Title IX Coordinator determines, that he/she has no jurisdiction to investigate a complaint made under this Policy, or that the alleged conduct, even if true, would not constitute a violation of this Policy, then the Coordinator will notify the complainant that the complaint does not warrant further review under this Policy. This notice will explain the decision and refer the complainant to the appropriate KWU office.

D. The Title IX Coordinator will also discuss whether interim measures should be put in place to ensure accommodations for the complainant. Interim measures will be determined on a case by case basis and may include one or more of the following measures:

- Adjustments to academic workload (including extending deadlines or incompletes)
- Adjustment to work schedules
- Change in housing assignments, extracurricular activities, housing, and/or on-campus dining arrangements.
- Escorts to and from classes
- Skyping or other Electronic Means of Class Participation
- Changing Class Schedules
- No Contact Directives
- Separate Exam times and locations

The above referenced list is not exhaustive but merely examples of some of the Interim Measures the KWU may offer in a particular situation.

E. Depending on the specific nature of the allegation, interim actions to the respondent may include, but is not limited to the following:

- Imposition of a No-Contact Directive (a directive that the parties refrain from having contact with one another, their families, and/or their personal possessions, directly or through proxies, whether in person or via electronic means, pending the investigation and, if applicable, the hearing);
- Provision of counseling services;
- Provision of medical services;
- Suspension;
• Suspension of housing contract;
• Administrative leave with or without pay.

For students:

• Provision of academic support services, like tutoring
• Provision of alterations to the student’s class schedule to ensure the complainant and accused student do not attend the same classes;
• Moving the reporting student or accused student to a different residence hall; and
• Provision of an escort to ensure the student can move safely between classes and KWU activities.

For employees:

• Reassignment of job duties or supervisor
• Relocation of work site
• Administrative leave with pay

Step 2 - Formation of the investigation/inquiry team:

Once the Title IX Coordinator receives a complaint and deems the complaint to be within the jurisdiction of this Policy, the Coordinator will form the investigation/inquiry team for review of the facts and case. The team will consist of a lead and secondary investigator.

Step 3 - Initial evaluation of the complaint:

The investigative/inquiry team will interview the complainant as soon as possible after the initial report as to obtain preliminary and sufficient information to begin the investigation/inquiry. A complainant’s failure or refusal to participate in the investigation/inquiry process may prevent the team from investigating the alleged conduct. To the extent possible, the team will proceed with an investigation if a report alleges conduct that would constitute a violation of this policy.

Step 4 - Written complaint:

The investigation/inquiry team shall make a written report from the initial contact with the complainant. After the written complaint is complete, the complainant shall have an opportunity to read the written report to verify its completeness and accuracy.

Step 5 - Investigation/Inquiry:

With or without a written complaint, the investigative/inquiry team will:

A. Have contact and interview with the respondent. This will be completed within ten (10) working days of the initial report. A copy of the complaint, a copy of explanation of procedures, with a caution against retaliation, will be given at that time. After the initial interview a written copy of the interview will be given to the respondent. The respondent will have seven (7) working days to provide written response or rebuttal to the complaint to the investigative/inquiry team. Additionally, the respondent will be informed that the investigation/inquiry will proceed with or without the respondent’s response.

B. Receive, clarify and evaluate the respondent’s responses to the complainant and;

C. Interview any persons with specific knowledge of the alleged incident(s) and review relevant policies, procedures, files, documents and records.
D. A report will be submitted by the investigators to the Coordinator within fifteen (15) working days from the point that investigators receive notifications.

Step 6- Determination and Written Determination:

The Coordinator shall review the investigator’s written report and will consider all the information the investigator gathered and decide whether or not the respondent violated this Policy, based on the preponderance of the evidence. The Coordinator will issue written determination, with fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the investigator’s report, to the complainant, to the respondent and to the administration. The Coordinator’s written determination will include a finding of fact, a determination of whether the respondent violated this Policy, and describe what the complainant and/or respondent must do to file an appeal of the written determination.

If the Coordinator determines that the respondent violated this Policy, the Coordinator will forward his or her written determination to the Provost who will determine appropriate disciplinary action.

B. Appeal of Coordinator’s Findings:

If the complainant and/or respondent is dissatisfied with the Title IX Coordinator’s written determination, the complainant and/or respondent may submit an appeal to the Title IX Appeal Team. That appeal must be submitted in writing to the Coordinator and Title IX Appeal Team within ten (10) working days from the date the Coordinator’s written determination was issued. The appeal must state every ground on which the appeal is based.

On appeal, the Title IX Appeal Team does not conduct a new investigation. The Title IX Appeal Team may only decide, based upon the information presented, whether the Coordinator’s determination was “clearly erroneous” (i.e., plainly in error). The Title IX Appeal Team will defer to the Coordinator for all credibility decisions (e.g., who is telling the truth). If an error(s) was made that would not have changed the determination (i.e., “harmless error”), then that error must be disregarded. In the event that the Title IX Appeal Team decides that the Coordinator’s finding is clearly erroneous, the Provost shall refer the matter back to the Coordinator for further investigation and shall provide the coordinator with a specific written basis for the “clearly erroneous” determination. The process then returns to step 5 “investigations”. A decision to remand to the Coordinator is not subject to appeal.

All decisions of the investigation should be made in writing, with copies to the complainant, respondent, coordinator and Title IX Appeal Team.

If the Title IX Appeal Team determines that the Coordinator’s findings are not clearly erroneous, then the Title IX Appeal Team’s determination is final and not subject to further review within the KWU.

The Title IX Appeal Team should rule on an appeal in a timely fashion, preferably within fifteen (15) working days after receipt of the appeal. Rulings should be made in writing, with copies to the complainant, respondent, and Coordinator.

C. Sanctions:

KWU reserves the right to take whatever measures it deems necessary in response to the Coordinator’s written determination that this Policy was violated. Such measures include as to employees discipline up to and including cancellation of contract and/or termination of employment and as to students include but are not limited to, modification of on-campus housing arrangements, probation, and expulsion. Other members of KWU’s community who are not subject to an explicit judicial procedure, upon a finding of a violation, shall be subject to removal from campus, cancellation of contract or other sanctions necessary, in the discretion of KWU, to address the behavior. Not all forms of sexual misconduct will be deemed to be equally serious offenses and KWU reserves the right to impose different sanctions, ranging from verbal warning to expulsion of enrollment or to termination of employment, depending on the severity of the offense. KWU will consider the concerns and rights of both the complainant and the respondent.
If the Coordinator determines that this Policy was violated, the Provost decides the sanctions. Within ten (10) working days from the date the Coordinator’s written determination was issued, the complainant and respondent may submit written comments to the Provost regarding the Coordinator report. The Provost will issue a written decision on sanctions in a timely fashion after the expiration of the ten (10) day comment period, and preferably within thirty (30) working days after receipt of the Coordinator’s report. The Provost’s written decision on sanctions will be issued to the respondent and to the President. Once sanctions are decided, they shall be implemented immediately, regardless of whether the complainant or respondent intends to appeal.

D. Appeal of Sanction:

If the Provost imposes a sanction, the respondent may submit a written appeal to the Appeal Administrator (President) within ten (10) working days from the date of the Provost’s written decision.

A respondent’s appeal must be in writing and the appeal must state every ground on which the appeal is based.

The appeal does not involve a new investigation. The appeal may only decide, based upon the written information presented, whether the Provost’s basis for imposing sanctions, and/or the sanctions themselves, were “arbitrary and capricious.” This means that there must be no reasonable basis, under circumstances presented, to uphold the sanctions imposed by the Provost. The appeal must defer to the coordinator for all credibility decisions (e.g., who is telling the truth).

If the Appeal Administrator (President) determines that the Provost’s sanctions are arbitrary and capricious, then the Appeal Administrator (President) shall refer the matter back to the Provost for further review and shall provide the Provost with a specific written basis for the “arbitrary and capricious” determination. A decision to remand to the Provost is not subject to appeal.

The Appeal Administrator (President) should rule on an appeal in a timely fashion, preferably within thirty (30) working days after receipt of the appeal. Rulings should be made in writing, with copies to the respondent, Coordinator, and the Provost. A ruling by the Appeal Administrator that affirms the Provost’s decision is not subject to further review within the KWU.

Retaliation

KWU prohibits retaliation of any sort against a person bringing a complaint or otherwise cooperating in the investigation of a complaint under this Policy. Accordingly, the initiation of a bona fide complaint of under this or cooperation in such an investigation will not adversely affect that member’s status/position, evaluation, wages, advancement, assigned duties, shifts or any other aspect of the member’s experience at KWU. Conversely, because such matters warrant such serious attention, allegations that are found to be intentionally or recklessly false may result in disciplinary action against the accuser. Should a member feel he or she is being retaliated against, he or she should report such action immediately as otherwise described herein.

Improper Conduct During an Investigation

Any member of the KWU community who knowingly provides false information or who refuses to cooperate in an investigation related to this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, potentially including expulsion, suspension, termination of employment, removal from campus, cancellation of contract or any other sanction necessary, in the discretion of the KWU, to address the behavior.

Institutional Response

Public Information

All requests from the media, the campus community at large or the general public, for information concerning an alleged incident of sexual assault, harassment or other forms of sexual misconduct should be directed to the KWU Public Relations. Failure to comply with this requirement may subject a member to possible sanctions including, but not limited to, expulsion, suspension, removal from campus, cancellation of contract and/or termination of employment.

Public Notification of Incidents

As required by law, KWU collects and annually reports statistical information concerning sexual misconduct occurring within its jurisdiction. To promote public safety, KWU also alerts the campus community to incidents and trends of immediate concern.

Relationship Counseling

Consensual relationships between faculty or staff and students can be problematic. Relationships that might be appropriate in other circumstances are deemed extremely unwise when they occur between an employee of KWU and a person for whom that employee has a professional responsibility. The power differential inherent in such relationships may render any apparent consent void and create grounds for a sexual harassment complaint. KWU prohibits supervisors and managers from dating, engaging in amorous relationships with, or participating in sexual relations who report to them, either directly or indirectly. This prohibition also applies to the relationship between students and faculty or athletic coaches.

EDUCATION AND PREVENTION

Educational Training Programs

KWU provides resources for education and training about, and prevention of sexual assault, harassment, and other forms of sexual misconduct. Members of the KWU community are urged to take advantage of the following on-campus prevention and educational resources, and are required to do so as described in section VIII C below.

- Student Orientation Program, required for all new students, and available to all members wishing to attend.
- Student Health 101, an electronic newsletter sent to all KWU students, published articles regarding alcohol, and other drugs, sexual assault awareness, and healthy living.
- Bystander intervention education regarding sexual assault awareness, alcohol and other drug use was offered to RA’s, student leaders, first year students and transfer students.
- Self-defense class is offered and taught by local law enforcement
- “It’s On Us” and “No More” campaigns
- Clothesline project
- “Hunting Ground” screening and discussion
- Residence hall bulletin boards
- Sexual Harassment Program/Sexual Misconduct Program conducted annually on-campus through the Student Development and Provost’s Offices

Background Checks

Except for adjunct faculty, KWU performs pre-employment background checks on all new employees as a condition of employment.

KWU performs background checks for adjunct faculty before they commence working.

Background checks are not required for current employees with the exception of those employees changing positions. For current employees changing positions, including those filling interim positions, a background check is only required when the new position increases the impact of the perceptible risk factor (contact with protected persons). If an employee experiences a position change within the same or greater perceptible risk factor, a new background check needs to be conducted if it has been five or more years since the last background check.
KWU performs background checks on all key students, camp counselors and program leaders prior to the performance of their duties or participation in the activity engendering this requirement.

KWU will make commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that all third-party contractors and vendors are responsible by contract for complying with these background check standards in regard to their employees, volunteers and subcontractors.

The term “employees” is intended to include administration, faculty (including adjunct faculty) and staff.

Training

Sexual misconduct often takes place when there is a power imbalance. The primary purpose of the training is prevention of sexual misconduct by increasing awareness of behavior which constitutes sexual misconduct and the circumstances in which it may occur. Training will also address strategies for a proactive response when there are warning signs that sexual misconduct may occur.

Sexual misconduct prevention training is required for members of the KWU campus community according to the following schedule:

- New employees, within six months of hire;
- All employees, who come in contact with protected persons-annually;
- All employees who do not come in contact with protected persons-biennially;
- Key students, camp counselors and program leaders prior to performing their duties or participating in the qualifying activity;
- Volunteers who come in contact with protected persons-biennially.

KWU’s education programs to promote the awareness of rape, acquaintance rape, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, which shall include:

- Primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees which will include:
  - A discussion of this Policy;
  - Safe and positive options for bystander intervention that may be carried out by an individual to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against a person other than such individual;
  - Information on risk reduction to recognize warning signs of abusive behavior and how to avoid potential attacks;
  - The procedures set forth in this Policy for handling a complaint;
  - Possible sanctions or protective measures KWU may impose following a final determination after a KWU investigation of reported incident of rape, acquaintance rape, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
  - Procedures victims should follow if a sex offense, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has occurred, including information about:
The importance of preserving evidence as may be necessary to the proof of criminal domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or in obtaining a protection order;

To whom the alleged offense should be reported;

Options regarding law enforcement and campus authorities, including the victim’s option to:

- Notify proper law enforcement authorities, including on-campus and local police;
- Be assisted by campus authorities in notifying law enforcement authorities if the victim so chooses; and
- Decline to notify such authorities; and
- The rights of victims and KWU’s responsibilities regarding orders of protection, not contact orders, restraining orders, or similar lawful orders issued by a criminal and/or civil court;

G. Notification to students and employees about existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, and other services available for victims both on-campus and in the community; and

H. Information concerning options victims have for available assistance. If applicable, in changing academic classes, on-campus living, and working situations, if so requested by the victim and if such accommodations are reasonable available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the incident to campus police or to local law enforcement, and

I. Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns for students and faculty that will include the above information.

Sexual Harassment may also be reported outside of KWU to:

Medical-Legal Evidence Collection
A person who is the victim of sexual misconduct (particularly rape, forcible oral copulation, or sodomy) is encouraged to request collection of medical-legal evidence. Collection of evidence entails interaction with police and a police report. Prompt collection of physical evidence is essential should a person later decide to pursue criminal prosecution and/or a civil action.
Alcohol and Drug Use Policy
KWU strongly supports the provisions of The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 (Public Law 101-226). The following information shall be provided at least annually to all students and employees of the University under the “Drug Free Schools and Campuses” portion of the above Kansas law.

Statement of Policy
The use of drugs, including alcohol, on the campus of Kansas Wesleyan University is considered detrimental to the educational environment. Use or possession of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs on campus is prohibited. Violators will be subject to disciplinary and/or legal action. Empty alcoholic beverage containers are not permitted, even as decorative items. The unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students or employees on the property of Kansas Wesleyan University or as part of any of the activities of the University is strictly prohibited.

University Sanctions
University sanctions will be addressed in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct or the employee handbook, as appropriate.

Health Risks
Health risks associated with the use of illicit drugs and the abuse of alcohol vary. Possible effects and risks include coma, convulsions, respiratory failure, hallucinations, psychosis, fatigue, paranoia, and death.

Counseling, Treatment, and Rehabilitation Programs
Counseling and referral services are available to University students and employees through the Student Development Office.

Alcohol Policy
The possession, consumption, and sale of alcoholic beverages are not permitted on the campus of Kansas Wesleyan University nor at any KWU off-campus student events. Intoxicated persons (behavior characterized by, among other things, belligerence/noise, staggering, slurred speech, vomiting, unconsciousness, damage to self, others, property) will be charged with a violation of the Student Code of Conduct or the employee handbook, as appropriate.

Students, faculty, staff, administration, as well as Resident Assistants and Resident Directors may submit violations of the alcohol policy to the Student Development Office.

Additional guidelines governing the use of alcoholic beverages include:
• Inappropriate behaviors such as: verbal or physical confrontations where alcohol appears to be a contributing factor will be considered a violation of the alcohol policy (including intoxicated behavior).
• Students in a location where alcoholic beverages or containers are present but not necessarily in possession - can be considered to be in violation of the alcohol policy.
• Advertisements on campus for off-campus events may not contain information that specifies, implies, or suggests that alcohol and/or other drugs will be present.
• College-owned or rented vehicles may not be used to transport alcoholic beverages.
• Empty and/or full alcoholic beverage containers (i.e. cans, bottles, and kegs) are not permitted on campus.

Drug Policy
Any individual(s) who is/are cited, arrested, or convicted of any drug-related charge is in violation of KWU’s Student Code of Conduct and may be open to disciplinary action whether the infraction occurred on or off campus. Any student who engages in the sale or distribution of illicit drugs may be dismissed from Kansas Wesleyan University and subject to state and federal law enforcement.
Campus Crime Statistics and Crime Rates
In accordance with the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990, statistical data on criminal incidents (reported to Salina Police) and arrest (on campus) is provided as public information. The data covers a 12 month period from January 1 through December 31, for each year listed. The offenses listed are offenses included in the statistics compiled in the Uniform Crime Report by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The definitions of these offenses are in accordance with the Uniform Crime Report Definitions. It should be noted that the data included are only those offenses reported to the Campus Security Department and the Salina Police Department that have occurred on the Salina Campus. The statistics reported for the sub-categories on liquor laws, drug laws, and weapons offenses represented the number of people arrested, not the number of offenses documented. Statistical data on incidents off campus involving students are not included, as they are not retrievable from local law enforcement. Additional information regarding crime rates in the community may be obtained from the Salina Police Department.

Annual Fire Safety Report
The Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) enacted on August 14, 2008, requires institutions that maintain on-campus student housing facilities to publish an annual fire safety report that contains information about campus fire safety practices and standards of the institution. Contents of this report reflect the requirements outlined in HEOA and include the following: fire prevention policies and practices, fire safety educational and training programs, description of fire protection equipment in on-campus housing facilities, emergency evacuation procedures, fire safety statistics, and proposed plans for future improvements to the student housing fire safety program.

Fire Safety
Kansas Wesleyan University takes fire safety seriously and strives to maintain a safe living, learning, and working environment free of foreseeable fire hazards for our students, staff, faculty, and guests. Educational programs are presented throughout the year to on-campus residence hall students and staff so they are aware of the rules and safe practices.

The University maintains and tests all fire alarms and automatic fire suppression systems in accordance with the appropriate National Fire Protection Association standard to ensure system readiness and proper operation in the event of a fire emergency.

The University has adopted and developed numerous safety policies and guidelines to help promote a safe living and work environment. Applicable campus policies and guidance documents such as but not limited to the student handbook, RA training manual, KWU emergency response plan and other applicable fire safety guidelines were references in the development of this report.

The Student Development staff and Plant Operations staff periodically review these policies and guidelines and revise them as necessary to fit the needs of the operations therein. A summary of these policies and guidelines is highlighted below:

Candles & Open Flames
Candles, oil lamps, potpourri burners, incense, etc that have flames or must be ignited with a flame are not allowed in the residence halls because of potential fire danger. Candle warmers are allowed, however, any damage due to spilled wax is the responsibility of the resident. The wick must be removed from the candle.

Holiday Decorations
Live Christmas trees or greenery, fiber optic trees, and lights (string lights or tube lights) are not permitted due to fire regulations and the risk of overloading circuits. Flame-retardant trees and greenery are allowed without lights. Trees cannot be placed in corridors, which are pathways.
Cooking
Students are not allowed to cook in the rooms because of fire safety and sanitation requirements. Kitchenettes are available for use in residence halls. Cooking is permitted between 7am and 12 am (midnight).

Tobacco Policy
It is the responsibility of the University to provide a healthy environment for all of its students, staff, administration, faculty, and guests. The Kansas Clean Indoor Air Act is a law passed March 12, 2010 that bans smoking in public places statewide. In the interest of cooperating with the Clean Indoor Air Act, along with our concern for health and welfare, Kansas Wesleyan University is a tobacco-free campus.
- The Tobacco Free Policy covers all smoking products and smokeless tobacco (chewing tobacco) products.
- All areas of the University premises and grounds are now tobacco-free, without exception.
- All visitors, contractors, and deliveries are required to abide by this policy. Employees are expected to inform students or visitors of the smoke-free policy.
- The tobacco-free policy also applies to any University vehicles and any vehicles being used on University business.
- Compliance with the tobacco-free policy is mandatory for all employees, students, and visitors to campus.
- Employees and students who disregard the tobacco-free policy may be subject to disciplinary action.

Residence Hall Fire Drills and Safety Checks
Fire drills are conducted in all on-campus residence halls during the academic year to allow residents to become familiar with building alarm systems and practice their evacuation plan. The drills are coordinated and conducted by the Director of Residence Life, Resident Directors, and Resident Assistants. All people inside the residence hall during the drill are required to evacuate the building.

Resident Assistants and Resident Directors conduct wellness and safety checks throughout the academic year. Staff will enter students’ rooms for a room inspection as part of a scheduled check. Staff will check for fire safety hazards including:
- Non-UL approved equipment;
- Multiple power cords connected to each other;
- Improperly installed refrigerators;
- Unapproved electrical appliances;
- Decorations inconsistent with fire safety guidelines;
- Clearly observable room damage;
- Unauthorized furnishings;
- Candles with burned wicks;
- Obvious violations of University policy.

Evacuation Procedures
The Kansas Wesleyan University Student Development office provide residents with fire evacuation procedures and conduct fire drills during each semester. Residents are informed of the following procedures.

If you discover a fire in the residence hall:
1. Immediately activate the nearest manual fire alarm pull station. The fire alarm system will alert people to evacuate the building.
2. Call 911 or 9-911 from a safe location to report the fire and to have as much information as possible.

Evacuation from the building:
1. Upon activation of the fire alarm system, everyone shall immediately leave the building.
2. Feel the door. If it is hot, do not open it.
3. If the door is cool, crouch low and open the door slowly. Close the door quickly if smoke is present.
4. If the hallway is smoke-free or there is a light smoke condition, proceed to the nearest exit. If a light smoke condition is present, stay below the smoke (crouch or crawl).
5. Leave the building and meet at your designated evacuation meeting site.

If you are trapped in your room:
1. Place material (e.g. clothing, rug) at base of door to prevent smoke from entering the room.
2. Open your window, wave a piece of material, and yell to attract the attention of people outside.
3. Call 911 or 9-911 and report your location.
4. Stay low; breathe fresh air near the windows.
5. Await rescue.

Fire Safety Education and Training for Residence Life Staff
Annual fire safety training is done with Resident Assistants and Resident Directors in coordination with the Student Development staff, Salina Fire Department and Salina Police Department.

Topics addressed during the training include:
1. Fire prevention in the residence halls
2. What to do in the event of a fire
3. Evacuation planning
4. How to report a fire or other emergency
5. How residence hall fire safety systems operate
6. Fire extinguisher training
7. Wellness/Safety checks of residents rooms

Fire Incident Reporting
Students, faculty and staff are instructed to call 911 to report a fire emergency

Immediate notification for a non-emergency incident (e.g., fire is out, evidence that something burned, attempted intentional burning of material) shall be made to:
Executive Director of Student Development: 785-833-4325
Campus Security: 785-452-2517
Director of Campus Safety: 785-833-4360

Plans for Future Improvements in Fire Safety

Kansas Wesleyan University continues to monitor trends related to residence hall fire incidents and alarms to provide a fire-safe living environment for all students. New programs and policies are developed as needed to help ensure the safety of all students, faculty, and staff.
